

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1872.

HOSES AND CARRIAGE MARKET.

NEW-YORK, Monday, Feb. 6, 1872.

The week opens with a fair supply of business horses of all kinds, and a very limited, yet some what more desirable stock of carriage horses than has been offered since last year's fall trade. Perie Railroad, from Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan, arrived 30 head of work horses of good quality, coming from the Hudson River Railroad, 19 head of good carriage horses, bays, browns, and blacks, in well matched pairs, from 16½ to 16¾ hands high, and none over seven years old. There were 100 horses, and 100 cattle, at Schenectady, and Delaware Counties, N. Y., and arrived in excellent condition. At the sale statistics up-town, speedy road horses are frequently offered in low figures, compared with what they were held at auction, and it is hardly any delay for them at the moment.

Regular semi-weekly sale of horses, wagons, harness, and horse-clothing, at Devers, Johnston & Van Tassel's Auction Rooms, 108 Broadway, to-morrow (Tuesday), the 7th inst., at 12 o'clock.

A lot comprising of new Portland sleighs were brought to the hamper at the Carriage Repository of S. E. Bates; but, the attendance being very slight, the bidding without animation, only a few sold, and those at low figures. Major C. W. Barker officiated as auctioneer.

COURT, PLATE.—THURSDAY, FEB. 7.—Adjourned to THURSDAY.

C